NEWS RELEASE

A.M. BEST REAFFIRMS A- (EXCELLENT) FINANCIAL STRENGTH RATING OF ACR MALAYSIA

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, 8 December 2017 – Rating agency, A.M. Best, has reaffirmed the financial strength rating of Asia Capital Reinsurance Malaysia Sdn. Bhd. (“ACR Malaysia”) at A- (Excellent) with negative outlook on 7 December 2017.

In A.M. Best’s latest annual reaffirmation of ACR Malaysia’s “very strong” balance sheet strength, it took into consideration the significant support provided to ACR Malaysia by parent company, Asia Capital Reinsurance Group Pte. Ltd. (“Asia Capital Re”) which includes quota-share retrocession and the sharing of certain services and infrastructure.

ACR Malaysia has maintained its A- (Excellent) financial strength rating from A.M. Best every year since the company was first rated in 2009.

About Asia Capital Reinsurance Malaysia Sdn Bhd

Asia Capital Reinsurance Malaysia Sdn. Bhd. (“ACR Malaysia”) was established in Malaysia in 2007 with the focus of serving clients in Malaysia. Rated A- (Excellent) by A.M. Best, ACR Malaysia draws on its strong capitalisation, access to international expertise and in-depth knowledge of Malaysia’s insurance market to provide clients and asset owners stable reinsurance protection for their growing base of portfolio and large assets. Today, ACR Malaysia’s services also extend to Brunei and the management of two capacity pools for agriculture and catastrophe risks across Asia.
